Eyes are the window of our soul

Do your eyes set you off astonishingly appealing or make you fall into the shade? The skin around our eyes is particularly fragile. If you don't take care of it, the signs of premature aging will easily appear around the eyes, and further affect others' impressions on you.

The eyeball is the fastest organ that start aging in the modern human's body

Living in the age of digital gadgets, everyone is generally can't live without their smartphones and gadgets. The habit of checking our handphones before we fall asleep at night, could cause light damage, accelerates the aging of the eyes, poor sleep quality and make us feel sluggish the next day.

As times moved on, the salaried employees, students, or even all walks of life, all required computers and the usage is averagely not less than 5 hours a day.

We keep our eyes open for at least 16 hours a day, absorbing everything we see and touch. Thus, eyeballs are under great pressure. Relieving eye fatigue is a small exercise that modern people must do daily!
